Certificate of Ordination.

This certifies that in Jennings, La., on the 20th day of January, 1901, I ordained Gaetano Vital and Abel Hoffpauir as deacons; and, by aid of the elders present, Charles C. Morris, Elder in the Church of God.

Signed,

H. W. Warren.

Resolutions.

We, the members and probationers of the Gulf Mission Conference, desire to express our gratitude to our beloved Bishop, H. W. Warren, for his careful and thoughtful administration of our present session.

We further desire to say that his presentation of scriptural truth, his exegesis and comments on the word, have proven a blessing and an inspiration to us.

Resolved, That this Conference pray the blessings of God on our beloved Bishop, and that the Lord may long preserve him as a useful and honored servant of our great church.

WM. R. CHASE,
J. W. LIVELY,
J. A. CHRISTIAN.

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, very greatly appreciate the hospitality of the people of Jennings who have so royally ministered to our comforts and pleasure during the Conference Session, the remembrance of which will ever be pleasant to us. As a Conference we most heartily pray that God's richest blessing may rest upon them.

C. C. MORRIS.

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, express our great appreciation of the able administration and fatherly advice of our beloved Bishop H. W. Warren, and will most gladly welcome him to our Conference at any time.

C. C. MORRIS.

Reports of Committees.

EDUCATION.

The Methodist movement began in a university. It inherited scholarly instincts. The same General Conference that organized the church made provision for the founding of a college. The Christian college has always been the handmaid of the Gospel. Far from opposing, Christianity has always fostered light and learning, and Christian schools have always developed with the establishment of the church. The church converts sinners, the schools educate the Christian. Methodism is doing efficient work in the South now, and our church work would be greatly strengthened by a good Christian school. Your committee recommend the appointment of C. A. King, C. E. Mock and F. D. Van Valkenburgh to meet with a similar committee from the Austin Conference with full power to act. We also recommend that C. A. King be appointed Financial Agent of Alvin College.

G. A. PEGRAM,
J. A. CHRISTIAN,
J. T. JAMES.

MISSIONS.

Our church is called on to shelter and provide a home for the thousands of humble poor in this great Southwest and around the world. With proper adjustment and loyal devotion on the part of our people and preachers she will be used of God as the evangelizing agency of this part of the country. The Gulf Mission Conference holds the key to the situation; to accomplish the work, we must faithfully disseminate information concerning missions by preaching on the subject, distributing missionary literature, forming our Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies, forming auxiliaries to the W. H. M. S., observing Easter as missionary day and taking collections in all our congregations.

J. W. LIVELY,
WM. R. CHASE.

PERIODICALS.

Our church has no sympathy with ignorance. It has its great publishing houses, papers and periodicals. Her literature, papers and Sunday School supplies are of the best published and the profits derived are applied to holy uses. We therefore recognize our interests and duty as a Conference to promote to the uttermost these interests of our own.

We specially approve the action of the last General Conference in merging the Omaha and Rocky Mountain Advocates with the Central, making it one of the strongest and best for the family and we recommend it to our people.

The Epworth Herald and its management meets our hearty approval, and we urge its support upon our young people.

C. A. KING,
JOHN PAUL.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Our Conference has raised for this cause up to Nov.
1, 1900.....	$659
Collections this year.....	159
Thirteen churches within our bounds have received aid amounting to $2,700 in donations and $1,725 in loans.
For the ensuing year we are asked to raise by collections....	$224
Our needy churches may receive.....	720
	C. E. MOCK,
	G. A. PEGRAM.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We express gratification for the advancement of the Epworth League during the past year in our Conference. We realize the need of stalwart young Christian men and women to aid in this glorious work. We recommend the organization of a chapter wherever possible and the devotion of an evening each week to the study of the Word, prayer and special instruction by the pastor in the different branches of league work. Our ideal is a consecrated pastor and Epworth League standing shoulder to shoulder, resulting in the conversion of sinners and the sanctification of believers.

C. C. MORRIS,
W. H. CURTIS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The total Sunday School population of the United States is more than 12,000,000, of whom there are in the M. E. Church over 31,000 schools with more than 2,600,000 scholars. We believe our own literature the best for the purpose that can be obtained, and we urge our pastors and presiding elders everywhere to see that it is used in our schools.

We recommend that a home department be established wherever practicable.

Inasmuch as the Sunday School Union of our church aids every year about 3,500 needy schools with literature and has no resources except the collection in churches, we urge that an offering be given for this cause in all our charges. We advise that each member of the school give as a thank offering one cent for each year of his age.

P. J. ROBIDOUX,
E. L. WELLS,
N. L. SAYERS.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.

The old time prejudices of our Southland towards this work are fast passing away. Heaven and this part of the earth are coming to think and feel more nearly together about this matter. How beautiful in this country are the fine institutions of learning for these poor classes. How greatly hath God wrought through our own church in this matter in the more than twelve millions expended in the South. Every dollar we raise in our work for this purpose, helps to work some of the glory of the Master into our lives. Every dollar raised in the South for this work helps to bring back the healing love of Heaven to this land. The chairman of this committee has never forgotten the sweet inward approval of the Master, when in 1896, he gave a hundred dollars and secured four hundred dollars from the Freedmen's Bureau at Richmond, to build the first church and school house for this people in the section of Northern Virginia where he was raised. May we all help the darkness to flee away before the coming morn of the New Jerusalem.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN T. JAMES,
C. C. MORRIS,
WM. H. CURTIS.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

With profound gratitude to our Heavenly Father for providing His creatures one day in seven in which to rest from our secular employments and to worship Him; yet it is with sorrow we see this Holy day set at naught by corporations, by individuals, and ever at our nation's capitol. If this wholesale desecration of the day were confined to the worldly, it might not seem so strong, but the defection has grown until many of those professing to be Christians and examples to the world of the mind of Christ are using the day as a more convenient day on which to travel and transact business. We recommend that our preachers emphasize more the importance of observing the day aright, and so arrest this evil before its demoralizing influences bring to us more destructive results than those already experienced.

TRACTS.

Our Tract Society circulates literature in at least twelve languages in our country alone, and in more than twenty in foreign lands. Every year it gives away 11,000,000 pages of tracts in the United States, besides sending $10,000 annually to our mission stations for aid in the publication and circulation of religious literature. During the past year it has distributed tracts to the soldiers in nearly all our camps; to the sailors and marines wherever access could be obtained; to the prisons and public institutions throughout the land wherever application was made; and to thousands of pastors for circulation in their charges.

Inasmuch as the Tract Society needs the sum of $50,000 per year, in order to carry on its work throughout the world, we urge a collection for it in every charge. And as each pastor who makes application, may receive free, tracts to half the amount of his last collection, we hope the pastors will more generally take advantage of this generous offer.

We find, by personal experience, that in many localities the tract is almost the only effective way of reaching the people with the Gospel, and would, therefore, recommend a more prayerful use of this weapon of the church, and we pledge ourselves to do our best to sustain this important cause.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We are more than ever convinced of the degrading, demoralizing and damning nature of the American Saloon. Having its origin in the fertile active brain of his Satanic Majesty, it confronts us as the mightiest agency for the ruin of our Christian civilization that exists in our country today.

If resolutions and anathemas could have exterminated it, no doubt it would long since have been banished from our midst, but rhetoric and elocution affect this giant evil about as much as Chinese Gongs and Tom Toms affect European or American armies as they rush to the attack, armed with long range rifles and rapid firing cannon.

Your committee is not disposed to enter into any criticisms of methods heretofore employed, not to map out any special plans for its extermination, but we do urge that we do all in our power to influence our people everywhere, to "vote as they pray," and to follow their votes by a constant and determined effort to see good laws enacted and enforced, looking to the complete overthrow and annihilation of the liquor traffic.

We are glad to see an effort is being made to change from our method of celebrating our National holiday, into one more worthy of a rational and Christian people, and we recommend a hearty co-operation in their efforts in this direction.

We submit, for your adoption, the following resolution:

Resolved, That, since the almost universal custom of celebrating the Fourth of July is neither sensible, rational nor Christian, but rather uncivilized, not to say barbaric, involving much waste and needless expense, and at the same time endangering property and life, and, also, being devoid of any really intelligent, moral or patriotic inspiration or influence, we will, from this time henceforth, do all in our power to induce our churches, Epworth Leagues, and other Young People's Societies, and our Sunday Schools, to celebrate our national birthday in a truly patriotic and Christian manner in the interest and for the promotion of the Temperance Reform; and, further, we recommend that, so far as practicable, on the Sunday immediately preceding the Fourth of July, all our pastors preach a sermon upon the wise, patriotic, temperance and Christian celebration of our great National Anniversary.

Historical.

In the Spring of 1888 Bishop Mallalieu appointed Rev. W. H. Cline, of the South West Kansas Conference, to take charge of the Lake Charles Region, with Rev. W. P. McLaughlin, of the New Orleans Mission District of the Louisiana Conference, as his Presiding Elder. During the first year Bro. Cline organized classes at Welsh, Brown School House (Now Raymond), and opened up preaching places at several other points. The next year at the session of the Louisiana Conference, Bishop Fitzgerald, without consulting him, transferred Bro. Cline and appointed him Presiding Elder of Lake Charles District. The following year he organized charges at Lake Charles, Welsh, Jennings, Crowley and Baldwin. Welsh included Evangeline, Fathergill School House, and Fenton School House, while Crowley included Ebenezer and Prairie Hayes.

During the following years, until 1894, Lake Charles District remained a part of the Louisiana Conference, with Bro. Cline as Presiding Elder. He earned his support by giving half his time to editorial work and half to the church, drawing simply his traveling expenses from the church.

In 1892 he attended the session of the General Conference held in Omaha, and by his efforts secured the separation of the white work from the Louisiana Conference, and its organization into the Gulf Mission, said organization being affected Jan. 20, 1893, at Jennings.

Previous work under Bro. Cline enabled the Mission to begin with seven charges, ten Sunday Schools, four churches and two parsonages, with 419 members and probationers. A good, spiritual condition is said to have existed throughout the work.

The enrollment of the first Session shows the names of L. F. Abernathy, W. H. Cline, P. A. Drown, C. A. King, J. W. Mougey, P. J. Robidoux, Logan Rogers, A. Wilkinson and C. K. Woodson, with Wm. Shepherd as local preacher. C. K. Woodson was elected Secretary, holding that office seven years. C. A. King was appointed Superintendent. The next year the names of P. C. Chaney, R. J. Crawford, S. E. Pendleton and E. L. Wells appear on the roll.

In 1897 the Mission was organized by Bishop Walden into a Mission Conference, with seven members, a church membership of 932 and 104 probationers, eight churches, two parsonages and $389 reported for the benevolent collections. Bro. King was appointed as Presiding Elder, holding that position till the Session of 1900.

The next year several of the charges now on the Marshall

District appeared for the first time, and at the Session of 1898, held in Crowley, that District was formed, with J. W. Lively as Presiding Elder. The growth of this District now extends from the sunrise in Mississippi to within a hundred miles of Sunset, in Texas, and threatens to include the whole Southland.

The transfer by the General Conference of 1900 of the New Orleans Central District, from the Louisiana to the Gulf Mission Conference, brought to us our oldest charge. Ames Chapel (now St. Charles Avenue church), has a history reaching back to 1865, when, on Christmas day, Bishop Thompson organized the Mississippi Mission. H. G. Jackson was, at that Conference, elected and ordained deacon, and appointed to the work in New Orleans. June 7, 1866, corporation papers were executed by the first Board of Trustees. Meetings were held in a small and inconvenient hall, and during a part of the year the name of A. C. McDonald appears as pastor of the church.

The next year, 1867, the lot on the corner of St. Charles and Calliope streets was purchased and the contract let for the building of the church that still stands. The lot cost ten thousand dollars and the church thirty-six thousand. The conference of 1866 appointed Rev. Dr. J. P. Newman, afterwards Bishop, to the charge, so that he really stands as its first pastor. During all these years this church has been one of the most important evangelistic centers of the South. Its membership has never been large, but its history has been replete as an evangelizing agency. Seventeen pastors, including some of the greatest men of the connection, such as Bishop Newman, named above, Bishop Hartzell, Dr. A. A. Johnson and other strong men have served the work.

The district was organized in 1887 with W. P. McLaughlin as Presiding Elder. As it now stands it includes work among the French, Italian and English-speaking people of the city and vicinity.
